Johnson Park, Piscataway. Sat, 6/4 – “18th Annual Towpath ‘Train’ing Run.” 7:00 am – 3:00 pm. The 18th annual Towpath “Train”ing Run is a non-competitive group run held on National Trails Day and hosted by the Raritan Valley Road Runners to benefit The Rutgers Cancer Institute of New Jersey, with a $.50 donation for every mile we run or walk! In 2015, we ran 2,685 collective miles and donated over $1,342.00 to the Rutgers CINJ. Run part, or all, of the 34.6-mile Delaware & Raritan towpath together in a group! The ‘trains’ (of runners) depart from Trenton and make their way at pre-determined paces toward their destination station, Johnson Park, in New Brunswick. The train stops at each ‘station’ along the way to pick up other passengers (runners or walkers). All trains are scheduled to reach their destination at the same time. Snacks, water, Gatorade and support provided along the trail. Feel the power of the group as you enter Johnson Park as one! Run is done by 11:00 am and we picnic and party till 3 or 4pm. Picnic includes hot and cold food, as well as beer, sangria, soda and water. Root beer floats were a big hit last year! Bus transportation to your starting point, food and drinks and donation to Rutgers Cancer Institute included in registration fee. Registration is encouraged by May 14th. Applications are available at www.rvrr.org or register at active.com soon. There are 12 different bus departure times from Grove 4 to get runners out to the towpath. New this year- we will have buses taking ultra- runners down to Trenton for 7:30,8:30,9:30 and 10:30 paces. Additional pacers added to keep runners on schedule, motivated and having fun. We will have access to hundreds of parking spots in Grove 4. We will also support runners and walkers from a 7:30 pace to a 15 minute pace. Walk/run your distance at your pace and finish at the same time as those who started in Trenton and ran 34.6 miles. Imagine 200+ runners and walkers finishing as one!
